ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

   A system for sharing profits gain from an agency service, includes a storage module for storing amounts of share target money, which should be shared to a plurality of providers, of 5 profits obtained by operating for a predetermined period an agency service for providing users with a plurality of services provided from a plurality of providers, and a calculation module for calculating an amount of shared money allocated to each service from within the amount of share target money stored in 10 the storage module on the basis of a frequency of providing each service during the predetermined period.